Noble Heroism of General Hovey's Brigade.

THE ENEMY REPULSE THE ASSAULTANTS WITH HEAVY LOSS.

Arrival of the Wounded at Memphis Yesterday.

PRESENT ASPECT OF THE SITUATION.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

Cairo, Mo., May 28.

By the arrival of the steamer Imperial from Memphis last evening, in detail of all letters and dispatches from correspondents, I gather from the officers of the boat, on other reliable persons, the following latest news from Vicksburg:

The information came from Young's Point to Memphis on Wednesday, by the steamer City of Memphis, United States hospital ship, who having brought up about four hundred.

It appears, that, as previously reported, General Grant had taken all the money's worth, but had not secured a thousand, in the abundant time and facilities they have enjoyed, a high degree of impregnability to the place.

The natural defensive features of the position are of no ordinary character.

What the adequate understanding of what not be encountered by the assaulting party, our readers are only well prepared to what has been encountered, and for the heavy losses to our army, which will be to the price of our victory.

The news of last evening is, both from Capt. Hovey having, with his division, planted our colors upon their wall; but after hard fighting, our troops were repulsed with great loss, and that attempt was for the time abandoned.

As this was the forlorn hope of the evening, it was supposed some means would be found to take it before the rebels could bring forces to his bank. The loss in Gen. Hovey's brigade must be severe.
